Congratulations! to Amy Francken and Joshua Winkler and their families on the birth of Anthony Richard born on February 1 (6 lb 9 oz and 20 in). Welcome to our Parish Family!

"Preserve her and this child which she has borne. Cover her with the shelter of thy wings from this day until her final end, through the prayers of the most Holy Theotokos and of all the saints. Amen" – from Prayers for a Woman on the First Day after Childbirth +++ +++ +++

Holy Water Reminders:

Do Not Hoard Old Holy Water:

While Holy Water does not "go bad", it is best to refresh your water each year. Holy Water from the previous Theophany should be poured outside (preferably on the corner of your house or in a garden where people are not going to walk on it). The best scenario is to use the water in the mornings, in your cooking, etc.

2018 Holy Water Available To Take Home: Please plan to take Holy Water home with you! Bring in a container and fill it up. Holy Water can be drank when we are feeling under the weather. You may bless one another with it (together with the sign of the Cross) prior to tests for our children in school, big days at the office, or before doctor appointments.

Akathist to St. Xenia – This Akathist covers many topics. Within it, Orthodox Prayers are offered to Find a Job, a Spouse, or a Home, to Save a Marriage, and for the Healing of Mental Illness! (St Xenia is the patron saint for finding employment.) Whether any of these areas are a concern for you or not, come and pray on Tuesday, February 6th for those who it will benefit!

+++ +++ +++

All-Soul Saturday (Zadušna Subota) Liturgies and Panachidas - On these days, we especially pray for the departed loved ones of our families. If you are not working on Saturday, come to church and pray with us, light a candle, and remember your departed loved ones. Please inform Fr Dave if there are any additions to be made to the Commemoration Diptychs (Hramoty) from last year.

+++ +++ +++

Pre-Lenten Breakfast - will be on Sunday, February 11th, Meatfare Sunday, immediately after the Divine Liturgy.

+++ +++ +++

Blessing of Candles - We will bless candles following the Feast Day Divine Liturgy on Thursday, February 15th as well as after the Liturgy on the following Sunday (Feb. 18th). All are encouraged to bring in candles from home to be blessed after these two Liturgies. Let's light up the world with our blessed candles!

The Holy Disciple Timothy

Epistle: 1 Corinthians 6:12-20

Glorify God in Body and Spirit

Commemorated on Feb 4 / Jan 22

The Holy Disciple Timothy was from the Lycaonian city of Lystra in Asia Minor. Saint Timothy was converted to Christ in the year 52 by the holy Apostle Paul (+ c. 67, Comm.

29 June). When the Apostle Paul and Barnabas first visited the Lycaonian cities, the Apostle Paul at Lystra healed one crippled from birth; many of the inhabitants there then believed in Christ, and among them was the future youthful disciple Timothy, his mother Eunice and grandmother Loida (Lois) (Acts 14:6-12; 2 Tim. 1: 5). The seed of faith, planted in the soul of Saint Timothy by the Apostle Paul, brought forth abundant fruit. He became a zealous student of the Apostle Paul, and later his constant companion and co-worker in the preaching of the Gospel. The Apostle Paul loved Saint Timothy and in his Epistles called him his beloved son, with gratitude remembering his devotion and fidelity. He wrote to Timothy: "Thou hast followed me in teaching, in life, in disposition, faith, magnanimity, love, and patience in afflictions and sufferings..." (2 Tim. 3: 10-11). The Apostle +++ +++ +++ +++ +++ +++ +++ +++ +++ +++ +++ +++

¹² "All things are lawful for me," but not all things are helpful. "All things are lawful for me," but I will not be enslaved by anything. ¹³ "Food is meant for the stomach and the stomach for food"-and God will destroy both one and the other. The body is not meant for immorality, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. ¹⁴ And God raised the Lord and will also raise us up by his power. 15 Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I therefore take the members of Christ and make them members of a prostitute? Never! ¹⁶ Do you not know that he who joins himself to a prostitute becomes one body with her? For, as it is written, "The two shall become one flesh." ¹⁷ But he who is united to the Lord becomes one spirit with him. ¹⁸ Shun immorality. Every other sin which a man commits is outside the body; but the immoral man sins against his own body. ¹⁹ Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, which you have from God? You are not your own; ²⁰ you were bought with a price. So glorify God in your body.

Paul in the year 65 ordained Saint Timothy as bishop of the Ephesus Church, which the saint administered for 15 years. And finally the holy Apostle Paul, situated in prison and knowing, that the act of martyrdom was before him, summoned his faithful student and friend, the Disciple Timothy, for a last farewell (2 Tim 4: 9).

Saint Timothy ended his life as a martyr. At Ephesus the pagans made a feastday in honour of their idols and they carried them through the city, accompanied by impious ceremonies and songs. The holy Bishop Timothy, zealous for the glory of God, attempted to halt the procession and reason with the spiritually blind idol-worshipping people, by preaching the true faith in Christ. The pagans dashed angrily upon the holy disciple, they beat him, dragged him along the ground, and finally, they stoned him. The holy Disciple Timothy's death by martyrdom occurred in the year 80. In the IV Century the holy relics of the Disciple Timothy were transferred to Constantinople and placed in the church of the Holy Apostles. Holy Church venerates Saint Timothy as amongst the number of the Seventy Disciples.

SUNDAY'S SCRIPTURE READINGS

Gospel: Luke 15:11-32

The Parable of the Prodigal and His Brother

¹¹And he said, "There was a man who had two sons; ¹² and the younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me the share of property that falls to me.' And he divided his living between them. ¹³ Not many days later, the younger son gathered all he had and took his journey into a far country, and there he squandered his property in loose living. ¹⁴ And when he had spent everything, a great famine arose in that country, and he began to be in want. ¹⁵ So he went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country, who sent him into his fields to feed swine. ¹⁶ And he would gladly have fed on the pods that the swine ate; and no one gave him anything. ¹⁷ But when he came to himself he said, 'How many of my father's hired servants have bread enough and to spare, but I perish here with hunger!¹⁸ I will arise and go to my father, and I will say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; ¹⁹ I am no longer worthy to be called your son; treat me as one of your hired servants." ²⁰ And he arose and came to his father. But while he was yet at a distance, his father saw him and had compassion, and ran and embraced him and kissed him.²¹ And the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.' ²² But the father said to his servants, 'Bring quickly the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet; ²³ and bring the fatted calf and kill it, and let us eat and make merry; ²⁴ for this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found.' And they began to make merry.

'Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fatted calf, because he has received him safe and sound.'²⁸ But he was angry and refused to go in. His father came out and entreated him, ²⁹ but he answered his father, 'Lo, these many years I have served you, and I never disobeyed your command; yet you never gave me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends.³⁰ But when this son of yours came, who has devoured your living with harlots, you killed for him the fatted calf!' ³¹ And he said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours.³² It was fitting to make merry and be glad, for this your brother was dead, and is alive; he was lost, and is found.'"

LIVING ORTHODOXY

Wise answers of Monk Simeon of Mt. Athos

Which teacher is the best? Suffering. Which teacher is the worst? Pleasure. What is the most rare skill? Ability to give. What is the best skill? The ability to forgive. What is the most difficult skill? The ability to keep quiet. What is the most important skill? The ability to ask. What is the right skill? The ability to listen. What is the most dangerous fight? Fanatical. [obsessiveness] What is the most harmful habit? Talkativeness. Which person is the strongest? He who is capable of comprehending the truth. Which person is the weakest?

He who considers himself the strongest.

What kind of person is the most sensible? He who watches his heart. What is the most dangerous attachment? Attachment to your body. Which man is the poorest? The one who loves money most. Which man is closer to God? Merciful. Which person is the weakest? The winner of others. Which person is the strongest? The winner of himself. What to resist trouble? With joy. How to withstand suffering? With patience. What is the sign of a healthy soul? Faith. What is the symptom of a sick soul? Hopelessness. What is the sign of wrong actions? Irritation. What is the sign of good deeds? The world of the soul.

SUNDAY OF THE PRODIGAL SON

"Came to himself: A person immersed in sin is living outside his true self (Rom 7:17-20). The prodigal realizes his hopeless condition. The bread symbolizes Christ, who is known through the Scriptures and the Eucharist." – Orthodox Study Bible, Luke 15:17

"Fleeing the cross is equivalent to fleeing from the glory of God." - Metropolitan Saba (Esber)

TUESDAY

"Provided they live a worthy life, both those who choose to dwell in the midst of noise and hubbub and those who dwell in monasteries, mountains and caves can achieve salvation. Solely because of their faith in Him God bestows great blessings on them. Hence those who because of their laziness have failed to attain salvation will have no excuse to offer on the day of judgment. For He who promised to grant us salvation simply on account of our faith in Him is not a liar." +St. Symeon the New Theologian WEDNESDAY

"We must understand that the human person in reality does not die. Death is simply a transfer from one life to the other." +St. Paisios of Mount Athos

THURSDAY

"Every Christian is given an angel from God to guard him all his life (unless, through evil deeds, he drives him away). But as smoke drives away bees and an evil smell drives away doves, so is the guardian angel of our life driven away by our sins: drunkenness, adultery, anger and so forth. The angel of every faithful man leads him to every good deed, while the demons labor to scandalize the faithful ones and deprive them of the Kingdom of Heaven." +St. Athanasius of Sinai

FRIDAY

"The rule of life for a perfect person is to be in the image and likeness of God." +St. Clement of Alexandria SATURDAY

"Let us always try to do good without expecting anything in return." +St. Paisios of Mount Athos

DEVOTIONAL PRAYER OF THE WEEK:

Akathist Hymn to St. Xenia of St. Petersburg, Kondak 1

Blessed Mother Xenia, Holy Fool for the sake of Christ, you elected to undergo the struggle of patience and the suffering of affliction. We therefore honor your sacred memory with hymns of praise. Help us against our enemies, visible and invisible, that we may cry to you:

Rejoice, O blessed Xenia, faithful intercessor for our souls!
